

We want to hear about your experience with health services in NSW

We would like to learn from members of the LGBTI community

- What are your health needs?
- What's working well?
- What's not working so well?
- How could services be improved?

Urbis, an independent research company, has been engaged by the NSW Ministry of Health to develop the first NSW LGBTI Health Strategy.

We want to hear from:

- gay men
- lesbian women
- bisexual men and women
- transgender and gender diverse people

(Consultations with people with intersex variations will be held in early 2020)

Speaking to Urbis is completely voluntary and you should know:

- Everything you say will remain anonymous
- Nothing you say about any service will be reported to that service
- Nothing you say will affect your access to services
- If you are selected to attend a roundtable, you will receive $80 to thank you for your time.

Complete the online survey before 13 December 2019 at 5pm:
<https://bit.ly/32WybNA>

Register to attend a community roundtable before 29 November 2019 at 5pm:
<https://bit.ly/2NV9nRD>

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact:

Sidonie Roberts from Urbis
(02) 8233 9962 or sroberts@urbis.com.au

Greg Smitheram at the Health and Social Policy Branch, NSW Ministry of Health
(02) 9391 9353 or greg.smitheram@health.nsw.gov.au

Your feedback is valuable and will help NSW Health improve health services for the LGBTI community in the future.

